INDIANA JONES'
CAPTIVATING NEMESIS

ANALYZE THIS (THEN STOCK YOUR HOTEL)

Created out of a need to find skincare products that would soothe her children's skin (and honor the memory of her late mother, whose homemade cures soothed her own childhood cuts and scrapes), native New Yorker Wini Burkeman recently launched McBride Beauty, a line of all-natural beauty products (no sulfates, parabens, or synthetic fragrances or colors) that will soon be the house amenity at Robert De Niro's Greenwich Hotel. For the hotel, Burkeman created a set of travel-size products (shampoo, conditioner, body wash, and lotion) that just beg to be smuggled home in your carry-on. Of course, for all you non-road-warrior types, the set ($34) is also sold in stores. Available at New London Pharmacy, 246 Eighth Avenue, 212-243-4987.—A.M.G.
